

Protection Policy for the 2022 Home Improvement Profitability Summit

We appreciate your interest in attending the 2022 Home Improvement Profitability Summit in New Orleans on February 1st-3rd. Dave Yoho Associates is committed to providing a safe environment that will allow you to focus on the powerful educational content being presented.

In June of 2021, we held a three-day live seminar in Northern Virginia that adhered to safety restrictions; the program was a success, and most importantly, there were no concerns expressed from any attendees during or after the event.

If you have any questions or concerns about the Summit or travel conditions, call our office at 703.591.2490 between the hours of 9:00 AM ET – 5:00 PM ET, Monday through Friday and ask to speak with Brad or Brian. You may also email our staff at admin@daveyoho.com.

Safety Information

The Sheraton New Orleans Hotel has assured us both verbally and in writing that their primary concern is prioritizing the safety of their guests. Learn more about their policy and “commitment to clean here.

We recognize that the current conditions are unpredictable, and as such we may revise our Protection Policy in advance of the seminar, in which case you will be notified.

Refund and Cancellation Policy

Dave Yoho Associates recognizes the current climate, and as such we are modifying our traditional ticketing policy:

- As an attendee, you are protected if the Summit is cancelled for any reason. Regardless of the date of cancellation, you will receive a full refund of your investment.
- You are entitled to transfer your tickets to the Summit to another individual, for any reason, up to 30 days before the program. For cancellations that occur under 30 days from the event, we will allow you to transfer your ticket(s) to attend a future Dave Yoho Associates seminar.

For refunds or cancellations, contact Brad Yoho at 703.591.2490 or brad@daveyoho.com.
